- (b) the board, or failing the board, the authorized signing officers of the Authority, may from time to time direct the manner in which and the person or persons by whom any particular voting rights or class of voting rights may or will be exercised.

PART 3

Borrowing Power

3.1 Without limiting the powers of the board set forth in the Act, the board may from time to time, in such amounts and on such terms as it deems expedient, cause the Authority to:

PART 4

DIRECTORS

Number and Powers

4.1 The board shall consist of the number of directors prescribed in the Act. The board shall manage, or supervise the management of, the business and affairs of the Authority and may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Authority and are not by the Act or the by-laws expressly directed or required to be done in some other manner.

4.2 A director must be a qualified Authority candidate.

Duties

4.3 Every director and officer of the Authority in exercising his or her powers and discharging his or her duties shall:

- (a) act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Authority; and
- (b) exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

4.4 A director shall, within fifteen days after changing his or her address, send the Authority a notice of that change.

4.5 Every director and officer of the Authority shall comply with the Act and by-laws.

Appointment and Term

4.6 Directors shall be appointed in accordance with the provisions of the Act and shall hold office in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

Vacation of Office

4.8 A director ceases to hold office as provided in the Act and a replacement for such director will be appointed as provided in the Act.

Vacancy in the Board

4.9 A quorum of the board may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body.

Validity of Acts

4.10 An act by a director or officer is valid notwithstanding an irregularity in their appointment or a defect in their qualification.

Conflict of Interest

4.11 Without in any way limiting the obligations of the directors under the Act, the directors shall comply with the conflict of interest provisions of the Act.

Remuneration and Expenses

4.12 The Authority shall reimburse each director for reasonable expenses incurred by a director on Authority business, which expenses will be verified in writing by the director claiming such reimbursement, and approved by the Authority in accordance with policies adopted by the Authority from time to time.

4.13 Each director shall be entitled to be paid remuneration, for any day on which the director performs a directorial service, including:

- (a) attending any meeting of the board of directors of the Authority or of any committee of those directors; or
- (b) attending the annual general meeting of the Authority;

such remuneration to be in an amount and manner consistent with provincial public sector organizations in British Columbia.

PART 5

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Calling of Meetings

5.1 Meetings of the board and of any committee may be held at any place. A meeting of the board may be requisitioned by any director at any time, and the secretary shall upon requisition by any director convene a meeting of the board.

Notice of Meeting

5.2 Notice of the time and place for the holding of any meeting of the board or of any committee must be given to each director, or, to each member of the committee, as the case may be, not less than 7 days before the time when the meeting is to be held. A notice of a meeting of the board or of any committee need not specify the purpose of or the business to be transacted at the meeting.

Forms of Notice

5.3 Notice of the time and place of a meeting of the board or of any committee shall be given in writing in accordance with section 12.1.

Address for Notice

5.4 When notice of a meeting of the board or of any committee is given to a director, it must be addressed to the director at his or her recorded address, but a notice sent to any other address at the request of the director will not be invalid.

Waiver of Notice

5.5 Notice of any meeting of the board or of any committee or any irregularity in any meeting or in the notice thereof may be waived in any manner by any director and such waiver may be validly given either before or after the meeting to which such waiver relates. Attendance of a director at a meeting of the board or of any committee is a waiver of notice of the meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.

Adjournment

5.6 Any meeting of the board or of any committee may be adjourned from time to time by the chair of the meeting, with the consent of the directors in attendance at the meeting, to a fixed time and place and no notice of the time and place for the holding of the adjourned meeting need be given to any director if the time and place of the adjourned meeting is announced at the original meeting. Any adjourned meeting shall be duly constituted if held in accordance with the terms of the adjournment and a quorum is present thereat. The directors who formed a quorum at the original meeting are not required to form the quorum at the adjourned meeting. If there is no quorum present at the adjourned meeting, the original meeting shall be deemed to have terminated forthwith after its adjournment.

Quorum

5.7 Unless otherwise determined by the directors, a majority of the number of directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of directors.

Chair

5.8 The chair of the board will be chair of each meeting of the board, but if at any meeting the chair of the board is not, within 15 minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, present and willing to act, the directors present may by resolution choose one of their number to be chair of the meeting.

Powers of Directors Where Quorum Present

5.9 A meeting of directors at which a quorum is present is competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions for the time being vested in or exercisable by the board generally.

Determination of Questions

5.10 Questions arising at a meeting of the board will be decided by a majority of votes and in the case of an equality of votes, the chair will have a second or casting vote.

Disclosure of Interest

5.11 A director who is interested in any contract or transaction will be counted in the quorum for a meeting at which such contract or transaction is being considered, but will disclose the nature and extent of such interest at the meeting. A director cannot vote in respect of a contract or transaction in which such director has an interest.

Participation by Electronic/Telephonic Means

5.12 If all the directors of the Authority consent, a director may participate in a meeting of the board or of a committee by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. A director participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present at that meeting.

Electronic Resolution

5.13 A resolution of the directors, if approved by the required number of directors by telex, telegraph, facsimile or other electronic transmission, telephone or any other similar means of communication and confirmed in writing or other graphic communication, is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the directors properly called and constituted.

Written Resolution

5.14 A resolution of the directors or of any committee of them may be passed without a meeting if all the directors, or the members of the committee, as the case may be, consent to the resolution in writing.

Minutes of Meetings

5.15 The board will keep regular minutes of its meetings and cause them to be recorded in books kept for that purpose. Unless a ballot is demanded, an entry in the minutes of a meeting to the effect that the chair of the meeting declared a resolution to be carried or defeated is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

PART 6

COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

Delegation of Powers

6.1 The board may from time to time appoint from their number one or more committees, and the board may, subject to the Act, delegate to any such committee any of the powers of the directors.

Audit Committee

6.2 The board may elect annually from among their number an audit committee to be composed of not fewer than three directors.

6.3 The auditor of the Authority is entitled to receive notice of every meeting of the audit committee and, at the expense of the Authority, to attend and be heard thereat; and, if so requested by a member of the audit committee, shall attend every meeting of the committee held during the term of office of the auditor. The auditor of the Authority or any member of the audit committee may call a meeting of the committee.

6.4 The audit committee shall review the financial statements of the Authority prior to approval thereof by the board and shall have such other powers and duties as may from time to time by resolution be assigned to it by the board.

Quorum and Procedures at Meetings

6.5 Except as otherwise determined by the board:

- (a) a majority of the number of directors then constituting a committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of such committee;
- (b) a question arising at a meeting of a committee will be determined by a majority of the votes cast thereon, and in the case of an equality of votes the chair of the meeting will be entitled to a second or casting vote;
- (c) each committee will meet and adjourn as it thinks proper and will have power to elect its chair and to make rules for the conduct of its business;
- (d) a committee may act notwithstanding any vacancy in its body;
- (e) where a committee has only one member, that member may constitute a meeting; and
- (f) a meeting of a committee may be held at any place that a meeting of the board may be held.

Minutes of Meetings

6.6 Each committee will keep regular minutes of its meetings and cause them to be recorded in books kept for that purpose, and will report them to the board as the board from time to time requires.

PART 7

PROTECTION AND INDEMNITY OF DIRECTORS AND OTHERS

Limitation of Liability

7.1 Except as otherwise provided in the Act, no director or officer will be liable:

- (e) for any other loss, damage, or misfortune whatever which may arise out of the execution of the duties of his or her office or in relation thereto;

unless the same shall happen by and through his or her failure to exercise the powers and to discharge the duties of his or her office honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Authority, and in connection therewith to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

7.2 The Authority may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of an individual referred to in section 7.3 against any liability incurred by the individual:

- (a) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer of the Authority; or
- (b) in the individual's capacity as a director or officer, or similar capacity, of another entity, if the individual acts or acted in that capacity at the Authority's request.

Indemnities to Directors

7.3 The Authority will indemnify a person who is a director, officer, former director or former officer of the Authority, and the person's heirs and personal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, actually and reasonably incurred by the person, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment in a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which the person is made a party because of being or having been a director, including an action brought by the Authority, if:

- (a) the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Authority; and
- (b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding, the person had reasonable grounds for believing that the person's conduct was lawful.

7.4 The Authority may advance moneys to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding referred to in section 7.3, but the individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfil the conditions of section 7.3.

Amplification of Rights

7.5 The foregoing provisions of this Part are in amplification of or in addition to, and not by way of limitation of or substitution for, any rights, immunities or protection conferred upon any director or officer by any law or otherwise.

PART 8

OFFICERS

Appointment of Officers

8.1 The board shall appoint a chair of the board and a secretary, and may appoint such other officer or officers of the Authority as in their discretion they think fit. None of such officers (except the chair of the board) need be a director of the Authority. A director may be appointed to any office of the Authority. Two or more such offices may be held by the same person.

Removal of Officers, etc.

8.2 All officers, employees and agents, in the absence of agreement to the contrary, shall be subject to removal by resolution of the board at any time, with or without cause.

Duties of Officers may be Delegated

8.3 In the case of the absence or inability or refusal to act of any officer of the Authority or for any other reason that the board may deem sufficient, the board may delegate all or any of the powers of such officer to any other officer or to any director for the time being.

Chair of the Board

8.4 The chair of the board shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the board. The chair of the board shall possess and may exercise such powers and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be assigned to the chair of the board by the board.

Remuneration of Directors of BCFS

11.3 Subject to section 11.4, the Authority may establish or amend a BCFS directors' compensation plan.

11.4 A BCFS directors' compensation plan established by the Authority must:

- (a) establish the methodology by which remuneration for the directors of BCFS is to be determined, which methodology must result in remuneration for the directors of BCFS that is,

- (b) identify the organizations that are being used as the comparisons for the purposes of section 11.4(a).

11.5 After it has established or amended a BCFS directors' compensation plan, the Authority must, in accordance with that plan, determine remuneration for the directors of BCFS and the terms on which it is to be paid.

11.6 Promptly after the Authority has established or amended a BCFS directors' compensation plan and determined the remuneration for the directors of BCFS, the Authority must take all necessary actions as required in accordance with the Act.

11.8 The Authority must, promptly after it has established or amended a BCFS directors' compensation plan, publish that plan or amended plan on its website.

Remuneration of Executives of BCFS
